

A SONG WRITTEN FOR MICHELLE

Endless Delight

1:23

4:03

Michelle, I remember the day we met
You in your red top and blue jeans, I can't forget
Your caring heart, so kind and true
In every moment, I'm grateful for you
Through life's trials, you've been my guide
With gentle love always by my side

*Michelle, you're my soul mate, my light
The best thing to happen in my life
Your love is generous, warm, and bright
With you, everything feels so right*

Through the loss of parents, we held strong
Your loyalty and love helped me along
In every challenge, you stood by me
A gentle touch, setting my heart free
Your kindness, a beacon in the night
With you, everything feels so right
Our journey together, a beautiful song
In your love, I know I belong

*Michelle, you're my soul mate, my light
The best thing to happen in my life
Your love is generous, warm, and bright
With you, everything feels so right*

As we look towards the days ahead
With you, there's nothing I dread
Together, we'll create our own melody
In your love, I find my harmony

*Michelle, you're my soul mate, my light
The best thing to happen in my life
Your love is generous, warm, and bright
With you, everything feels so right*

*Michelle, my love, my endless delight
In your arms, everything feels right*
