

Eternal Embrace

1:23

4:04

Kelly, we found our love in Lanzarote's embrace,
From engagement to wedding, a beautiful place.

In Mexico, we renewed our vows so true,
Every holiday, a new adventure with you.
You're caring and kind, passionate and strong,
In your love, I feel I truly belong.

*Kelly, I thank God every day,
For the life and love we share in every way.
I waited nearly 40 years to find you,
I'd wait 40 lifetimes, if I had to.*

Through health struggles, you stood by my side,
With honesty and love, you are my guide.
Proud parents of Olivia and Sofia,
our pride,
Together, we face the world's changing tide.
Your adventurous spirit lights up our days,
In your embrace, I find my solace always.

*Kelly, I thank God every day,
For the life and love we share in every way.
I waited nearly 40 years to find you,
I'd wait 40 lifetimes, if I had to.*

Our journey continues, hand in hand,
Building a future, as we have planned.
With love as our compass, we'll never stray,
Together forever, come what may.

*Kelly, I thank God every day,
For the life and love we share in every way.
I waited nearly 40 years to find you,
I'd wait 40 lifetimes, if I had to.*

*In your love, I've found my home,
With you, I'll never be alone.*
