

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JONNA (PRONOUNCED JOHNNNA)

Sunflower Dance

Birthday

1:03

3:04

To Pat Green, we danced beneath the lights
Across the bar, your smile was calling me
I spun you out, you fell that very night
Then danced till dawn, just you and me
Your beautiful smile captured all my heart
We never knew the life that we would start

*Jonna, happy birthday, my heart still knows
Your beautiful smile's where my whole world goes
You're my sunflower, facing the sun
Our life has just begun*

Illness came in our first two years
I stayed with you through all the fears
Providing stability in the rain
Those hard days brought us close again
In Pennsylvania church, we praised the Lord
We gave our lives in one accord
At Glen Rose river, side by side
Baptized, our hearts were open wide

*Jonna, happy birthday, my heart still knows
Your beautiful smile's where my whole world goes
You're my sunflower, facing the sun
Our life has just begun*

Big E came home; you were not sure that day
Yet loved him till he passed away
I'll face your battles, keep you close and near
And love you like crazy, year by year

*Jonna, happy birthday, my heart still knows
Your beautiful smile's where my whole world goes
You're my sunflower, facing the sun
Our life has just begun*

*Your soul's a sunflower, seeking light
Still dancing with you through the night*

Scan to listen to your song

YOURMELODY

ORIGINAL EDITION • NO. 21391