

A SONG WRITTEN FOR IRENE

Timeless Love

Wedding anniversary

1:14

3:37

On our wedding day, you lit up the room
Your beauty made my whole world bloom
The years roll by, but still I see
Still just as beautiful to me
Your patient heart has seen me through
Rock solid, loving, always true

*Irene, this anniversary's for you
"I love you" feels too small, it's true
My heart comes home to you each day
I choose you, come what may*

You raised Emma and Shane with care
With giving hands, you were always there
They're wonderful people, it shows
In all the love that from you grows
When I went off the rails, you stayed
You kept things going, come what may
You made me see what I had found
I'll keep our love on solid ground

*Irene, this anniversary's for you
"I love you" feels too small, it's true
My heart comes home to you each day
I choose you, come what may*

I'll meet each new day by your side
And leave my old mistakes behind
May every year still find us near
With love that grows more bright and clear

*Irene, this anniversary's for you
"I love you" feels too small, it's true
My heart comes home to you each day
I choose you, come what may*

*Still beautiful, still my home
With you, I'm never alone*
