

A SONG WRITTEN FOR RICK

Rise Again

Tribute

1:08

3:20

You took a chance on a frightened soul
Naive, impulsive, lost in the night
Afraid of life, I could not feel whole
You showed me a way toward the light
You helped shape who I am today
Your loyalty still shows me the way

*Rick, this tribute's for your heart
Your loyal love gave me a new start
Your courage held me through the pain
Don't give up, rise again*

When all my hope seemed lost from sight
You stayed beside me through the night
That past I couldn't outrun came near
You helped me face it without fear
Your compassion would not turn away
Your forgiveness helped me find my way
Your wit could bring a little light
My best friend through the hardest night

*Rick, this tribute's for your heart
Your loyal love gave me a new start
Your courage held me through the pain
Don't give up, rise again*

We've built a life worth living here
Your dreams will bring the future near
Don't give up on all we share
I'll walk beside you anywhere

*Rick, this tribute's for your heart
Your loyal love gave me a new start
Your courage held me through the pain
Don't give up, rise again*

*With you beside me, the road shines bright
Forever, we keep choosing light*
