A SONG WRITTEN FOR SARAH

Morning Light

Just because

1:23 4:04

Over the allotment fence, you smiled
Your laughter made the daylight wild
On the drive of our first home, we held
A hug whose warmth I've always felt
Your massive heart was close to mine
And made the ordinary shine

> Sarah, I love you now and forever
> Your loving heart is my morning light
> Your laughter holds my heart so tight
> We'll stay close together

After we lost our unborn child
We held each other through the night
Your loving heart still made me smile
And led me gently toward the light
On the drive, that first embrace
Still has a home within my hands
Your joy can fill the quiet space
And makes me sure of where I stand

> Sarah, I love you now and forever
> Your loving heart is my morning light
> Your laughter holds my heart so tight
> We'll stay close together

I'll choose you in the days ahead
And keep your love close next to me
With every word my heart has said
You are my home, where I am free

> Sarah, I love you now and forever
> Your loving heart is my morning light
> Your laughter holds my heart so tight
> We'll stay close together

Your laughter lingers in the air
And I will always find you there
