

A SONG WRITTEN FOR BRANDON

Essence of Kindness

Birthday

1:05

3:10

There were glass balls and paper titties in view
That cardboard bum could make me grin
One of your biggest laughs rang loud and true
It filled the air from deep within
I've known that joy since you were small
Your kindness answers every call

*Brandon, may this birthday hold you near
Keep your true essence bright and clear
May your heart stay soft through every year
Let your kind heart steer*

Your steady hands have worked with care
Your thoughtful heart is always there
Your humour finds a spark of light
And makes the heavy feel less tight
You carry wisdom past your years
When Nan was lost, you faced the tears
Keep your true essence close and known
Don't let your tender heart turn stone

*Brandon, may this birthday hold you near
Keep your true essence bright and clear
May your heart stay soft through every year
Let your kind heart steer*

I pray you find the love of Jesus
That holds us close and never leaves us
May it guide you on your way
May its light within you stay

*Brandon, may this birthday hold you near
Keep your true essence bright and clear
May your heart stay soft through every year
Let your kind heart steer*

*May laughter rise in all you do
May kindness keep on leading you*
