

A SONG WRITTEN FOR DADDY MAHSHAD

Forever Good Girl

Birthday

1:21

3:58

When Spectrum sent you to my home
I felt a little light begin to grow
Each day and evening, texts came through
And every word brought me closer to you
Your funny way could brighten up my day
Your sweet hello would chase the clouds away

*Daddy Mahshad, you mean so much to me
Your gentle laughter always warms my world
Each day, you bring out the best in me
I'm still your forever good girl*

You're always on time, yet full of surprise
You make my quiet heart awake and rise
In good times, you were always there
Through hard times, you met me with your care
You make the smallest moment glow with light
With you, the ordinary feels so bright
Your sweetness shows in all the things you do
And every day, I'm glad I found you

*Daddy Mahshad, you mean so much to me
Your gentle laughter always warms my world
Each day, you bring out the best in me
I'm still your forever good girl*

On your birthday, may joy stay near
May laughter fill your coming year
I'll be beside you, tried and true
I'll cherish all we are, we two

*Daddy Mahshad, you mean so much to me
Your gentle laughter always warms my world
Each day, you bring out the best in me
I'm still your forever good girl*

*Each text still brings your heart so near
At home, I hold those words so dear*
