A SONG WRITTEN FOR ANNE RYNNE

Back to the Music

Retirement

As teenagers, we played in a band
Side by side, our music took its stand
Thirty years went quietly by
Yet music waited under skies
Now weekly in Doolin, we play
Finding our way back day by day

> Anne Rynne, may retirement bring song
> You deserve the best, where dancers throng
> May every tune keep shining bright
> May music, song and dance take flight

Your traditional fiddle fills the air
With the ceili band, your music's there
You bring the past so close and clear
Through every chat we love to hear
Then Covid stopped the tunes we knew
We couldn't play the way we do
Now weekly, songs can fill the air
In Doolin, we are playing there

> Anne Rynne, may retirement bring song
> You deserve the best, where dancers throng
> May every tune keep shining bright
> May music, song and dance take flight

May retirement open every door
To music, song, and dance once more
May every new tune be your guide
With dance and song there by your side

> Anne Rynne, may retirement bring song
> You deserve the best, where dancers throng
> May every tune keep shining bright
> May music, song and dance take flight

Resin in a tin, tunes begin
And we find our way back again
