A SONG WRITTEN FOR FARAH

Jewel in the Light

Just because

Behind the CVS counter, I saw your face
Love struck beneath the pharmacy light
Too shy to speak, I left no trace
You shone like a jewel, warm and bright
That first look kept burning in my heart
I carried its spark from the start

> Farah, let this truth be heard
> At every kiss, I'll bring you cheer
> Each "I love you" brings laughter near
> I swear love is real in this world

Then on the street, your car would not start
Life gave us one more chance that day
I came to help, with all my heart
And all my fear just slipped away
When money troubles came your way
I showed the love I hold so deep
I want your worries swept away
Safe, happy, with no weight to keep

> Farah, let this truth be heard
> At every kiss, I'll bring you cheer
> Each "I love you" brings laughter near
> I swear love is real in this world

I'll choose you with each rising day
With tenderness to light your way
May joy and laughter fill the air
May love be waiting everywhere

> Farah, let this truth be heard
> At every kiss, I'll bring you cheer
> Each "I love you" brings laughter near
> I swear love is real in this world

Like a jewel, you catch the light
That first spark glows warm tonight
