A SONG WRITTEN FOR SARAH

Forever Close to You

Birthday

On 8th March 2008, “pucker up”
Your bold hello was more than enough
Your laughter filled the room with light
You made my waiting world grow bright
Your caring hands draw me in near
Your protective heart calms every fear

> Sarah, I’m here in person or in the stars
> I’m your bymond through every scar
> You are my everything, it’s true
> I’ll stay forever close to you

On 22nd October, hands held tight
We promised love for all our life
You strum your guitar, full of cheer
Though every note you sing disappears
Ava and Ida fill our days
New trainers always find their way
Your funny smile lights up my skies
Your caring heart stands by my side

> Sarah, I’m here in person or in the stars
> I’m your bymond through every scar
> You are my everything, it’s true
> I’ll stay forever close to you

On your birthday, I make this vow
To keep your hand inside of mine
Whatever turns may find us now
I’ll choose you, every step, each time

> Sarah, I’m here in person or in the stars
> I’m your bymond through every scar
> You are my everything, it’s true
> I’ll stay forever close to you

Under the stars, I’ll hold you near
I’m still your bymond, bright and clear
