

A SONG WRITTEN FOR EMILY

Eternal Light

Just because

1:28

4:18

I see your smile, so warm and bright
It fills the quiet with its light
You're always there to lend a hand
A gentle strength I understand
You love each moment, full of grace
And care shines softly on your face

*Emily, your smile can light my day
Your caring heart will guide my way
No matter what, our love stays true
We will always love you*

Your health was getting worse, I knew
Yet every smile still carried through
Your love of life stayed close and bright
And gave the dark a softer light
You're always there to help me stand
With all the care within your hands
And through the days, I've come to see
Your gentle love has carried me

*Emily, your smile can light my day
Your caring heart will guide my way
No matter what, our love stays true
We will always love you*

I'll keep your smile within my heart
And never let that light depart
Whatever waits beyond today
Our love will not fade away

*Emily, your smile can light my day
Your caring heart will guide my way
No matter what, our love stays true
We will always love you*

*Your smile remains, so warm and true
Our hearts keep singing love to you*
