

A SONG WRITTEN FOR XAVIER

Hold On Tight

Anniversary

1:23

4:04

The day you fixed my car was a day God sent an angel in disguise

Who would have known it would turn into one of the biggest blessings

In Orlando, love began to open doors

That weekend felt like years of married life

Like we'd been husband and wife all that time

Your corny jokes bring laughter, bright and free

In moments only you and I can see

*Xavier, please don't give up on us
I'll fight to make the wrongs turn right
Give me some grace, I'll hold on tight
Please don't give up on our love*

When my brother passed, you held me close

You wiped my tears when I needed you most

In year three, the hard season found our door

I almost lost the man that I adore

From past trauma, you helped me start to heal

You made my heart believe that love was real

You helped me trust myself again somehow

My handsome face, I see my strength now

*Xavier, please don't give up on us
I'll fight to make the wrongs turn right
Give me some grace, I'll hold on tight
Please don't give up on our love*

Your selfless hands have always held me close

You work so hard and give your very most

A man after God's own heart at the core

My wise protector, you are who I adore

Your friendship gives my wounded heart room to heal

My confidant, you make our love feel real

Don't give up on all we're building now

My handsome face, stay with me now

On our anniversary, I choose you

Let's build for real, let memories increase

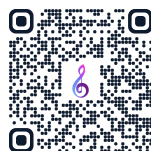

I'll get on your nerves our whole life through

With grace, our love will always bring us peace

*Xavier, please don't give up on us
I'll fight to make the wrongs turn right
Give me some grace, I'll hold on tight
Please don't give up on our love*

Your laughter is the song inside my heart

Forever, may we never drift apart
