

A SONG WRITTEN FOR AMY

Home Within My Heart

Just because

1:03

3:06

At the bowling center, on our shift
Your laughter felt like such a gift
We watched the hours roll along
Each smile became a little song
I said, "I'll be your cowboy true"
If you'd be my cow, I'd laugh with you

*Amy, you're the home within my heart
You're there whenever days are hard
My best friend, you show me the way
I will love you more every day*

In Buffalo, New York, we found a home
We bought a house and set roots down
We overcame it, not alone
And built our roots in this new town
You do so much for family
Your funny heart brings light to me
A great mother, strong and true
You're great with kids in all you do

*Amy, you're the home within my heart
You're there whenever days are hard
My best friend, you show me the way
I will love you more every day*

Just because, I choose you every day
I'll hold you close through all we face
No road can take my love away
Your love is still my safest place

*Amy, you're the home within my heart
You're there whenever days are hard
My best friend, you show me the way
I will love you more every day*

*From that first laugh, my heart still knows
You're my best friend wherever life goes*
