

A SONG WRITTEN FOR CONNIE

Eternal Heartbeat

Birthday

1:50

5:25

At Shell Beach, moonlight shimmered on the sea
The first day felt like a brand-new start
We talked till three a.m., just you and me
All night, you were close to my heart
Your smile caught my eye, love at first sight
Your giving heart still makes every day shine bright

*Connie, my Conbon, you're the reason I'm alive
Your love keeps every day so bright
At sixty-five, you're still my light
My heartbeat, my whole life*

In Hawaii, we let the warm days fly
Just being close was all we'd ever need
We danced beneath the open evening sky
Your selfless love was in each tender deed
Four grown kids and six grandkids light our way
Our greatest gift, the family we have borne
Now every step says I'm here to stay
I want you happy, I'll care for you each morn

*Connie, my Conbon, you're the reason I'm alive
Your love keeps every day so bright
At sixty-five, you're still my light
My heartbeat, my whole life*

Since seventeen, I knew you were my sky
Your loving heart is all I'll ever need
At sixty-five, I still see you and I
Your giving soul shines in each selfless deed
In two months, we'll have our time each day
To spend the rest of all my life with you
I'll hold you close and never drift away
My heart beats strong and true because of you

*Connie, my Conbon, you're the reason I'm alive
Your love keeps every day so bright
At sixty-five, you're still my light
My heartbeat, my whole life*

Your birthday shines within my heart
The rest of life, I'll do my part
In two months, we'll be retiring
Your selfless heart keeps inspiring

*Connie, my Conbon, you're the reason I'm alive
Your love keeps every day so bright
At sixty-five, you're still my light
My heartbeat, my whole life*

You and me, our favorite song
Your smile will lead me through the night
Together, everything feels right, my Conbon
