

A SONG WRITTEN FOR ANNE

Growing Stronger Together

Just because

1:21

3:58

When you stepped off the bus, I lost my way
I brought yellow roses, your favourite, that day
You'd forgotten your jacket, so I cared
My yellow jumper kept you warm out there
I kissed you first, too nervous to play cool
So awkward, but you made my heart feel full

*Anne, from day one, you saw the best in me
Two hearts became one; our love found its way
Each day, I grow into who I can be
Love that grows stronger every day*

We took a stroll together through the park
I stumbled; you saved me, you lighten up the dark
By the riverbank, our kiss was out in view
Our first public kiss felt bright and true
In hospital, I waited there that day
You came because you wanted to stay
That was the day I knew you were the one
And felt our love grow warmer than the sun

*Anne, from day one, you saw the best in me
Two hearts became one; our love found its way
Each day, I grow into who I can be
Love that grows stronger every day*

Through every change, I'll stand here by your side
Your patient heart will be my truest guide
I'll keep becoming all that I can be
With you, my love, in all that's still to see

*Anne, from day one, you saw the best in me
Two hearts became one; our love found its way
Each day, I grow into who I can be
Love that grows stronger every day*

*Yellow roses linger in my mind
In you, the best of me I always find*
