

A SONG WRITTEN FOR ANAESTAZIA

Heaven Shines Again

Just because

1:19

3:53

The first time you spoke my name, I knew
Your smile brought morning to the room
I held you in my arms; love grew
Each doubt gave way, like flowers bloom
My arms still know the warmth of you
That light still chases out the gloom

*Anaestazia, your love heals my pain
With you, my heart beats whole again
When I look at you, Heaven shines
You're my person, all mine*

I listened close to your heartbeat
And all the silence sounded sweet
When we got our tattoo, we knew
Love leaves a mark that carries through
At our first Christmas, side by side
We found a quiet kind of peace
Being away from you hurts inside
Yet love will never truly cease

*Anaestazia, your love heals my pain
With you, my heart beats whole again
When I look at you, Heaven shines
You're my person, all mine*

When being away feels hard to bear
I feel your love beside me there
Forever devoted, I will stay
Your love's the air I breathe each day

*Anaestazia, your love heals my pain
With you, my heart beats whole again
When I look at you, Heaven shines
You're my person, all mine*

*Your smile still turns the world to gold
I hold that light when nights feel cold*
