

A SONG WRITTEN FOR CINDY

Endless Love and Light

Tribute

1:16

3:45

On family vacations, laughter rose
Your music followed wherever we chose
You made each simple moment feel so bright
Your happy heart could turn the dark to light
Beside you, every ordinary day
Would find a little reason to sing and sway

*Cindy, your thoughtfulness brings me light
Your happy heart can make the whole room bright
Your caring hands can reach me with one touch
With all my heart, I love you so much*

Illness touched the family we hold dear
And death left silences we learned to hear
Still through the tears, you held our family near
With gentle strength that made the way seem clear
Your open arms still make the hard days kind
Your loving care brings quiet to my mind
I see the joy you carry everywhere
And thank you for the love we always share

*Cindy, your thoughtfulness brings me light
Your happy heart can make the whole room bright
Your caring hands can reach me with one touch
With all my heart, I love you so much*

This tribute carries all my love to you
To hear your music fill the room anew
I wish for thirty-eight more years by your side
With all my love, wherever life may guide

*Cindy, your thoughtfulness brings me light
Your happy heart can make the whole room bright
Your caring hands can reach me with one touch
With all my heart, I love you so much*

*Your music leaves a warm light in my heart
My love will hold us close, never apart*
