

A SONG WRITTEN FOR CINDY

Eternal Light of Love

Just because

1:11

3:28

At the mall, I met you that day
You carried your daughter in your arms
Eighteen months old, you passed my way
Your loving heart showed all its charms
That first hello began to glow
And gave my heart a place to grow

*Cindy, I love you beyond all measure
Your beautiful soul lights every room
I see your heart, my greatest treasure
Your light will always bloom*

At Disneyland, fireworks filled the night
I asked you if you'd be my bride
Twenty-four married years still shine bright
And you're still right here by my side
Recent goodbyes brought quiet pain
Your faith has kept us standing strong
Your cooking brings us joy again
Your laughter turns the hurt to song

*Cindy, I love you beyond all measure
Your beautiful soul lights every room
I see your heart, my greatest treasure
Your light will always bloom*

I hope to see you graduate one day
With close ones happy by your side
May every dream keep finding its way
All gathered there, so full of pride

*Cindy, I love you beyond all measure
Your beautiful soul lights every room
I see your heart, my greatest treasure
Your light will always bloom*

*Your loving heart still leads me home
With you, I'm never alone*

Scan to listen to your song

YOURMELODY

ORIGINAL EDITION • NO. 22247