

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JODIE

Heartfelt Apology

How truly sorry I am for hurting her

1:06

3:13

When Chaz brought Bruno to your house
I felt you holding back somehow
You didn't like me at the start
Then Bruno led me to your heart
We found the laughter, warm and free
And love made room for you and me

*Jodie, I'm sorry I made you cry
I know I let our love run dry
You are the whole world in my heart
Come back, don't let us fall apart*

My addiction pulled us far apart
I put that distance in your heart
Yet still your love would not let go
It stayed when I had fallen low
To Chaz, you are a loving mother
To Ezra, a grandmother like no other
Your crystal blue eyes shine so bright
Your precious heart still gives me light

*Jodie, I'm sorry I made you cry
I know I let our love run dry
You are the whole world in my heart
Come back, don't let us fall apart*

I choose the rest of life with you
I'll make things right in all I do
With Bruno, Chaz, and Ezra near
I hope you'll let me hold you dear

*Jodie, I'm sorry I made you cry
I know I let our love run dry
You are the whole world in my heart
Come back, don't let us fall apart*

*Your smile still finds me in the night
I hold on to that hopeful light*
