

A SONG WRITTEN FOR VIRGINIA

Captured by You

Just because

1:11

3:30

When we first met, you called me attractive
That one small compliment held me captive
Most people saw a guarded face
You brought a smile into that place
Your calm made all the noise grow still
Your warmth became my stronger will

*Virginia, you've captured all of me
Your charm has made me love you wholly
Your love gave courage, made me see
My one and only*

When your car broke down, I stayed near I'd help in every way, sincere
I would cover costs to ease the strain
So you'd have what you need again
The first time that my lips met yours
My last first kiss, forevermore
Your patient calm has made me see
How love brought hope and strength to me

*Virginia, you've captured all of me
Your charm has made me love you wholly
Your love gave courage, made me see
My one and only*

I'll guard your love through thick and thin
Your loyalty is where I begin
Even if it leaves me with nothing
I'd do it all again, still giving

*Virginia, you've captured all of me
Your charm has made me love you wholly
Your love gave courage, made me see
My one and only*

*Your eyes and smile can steal my speech
My heart still pounds within your reach*
