A SONG WRITTEN FOR JACOB

Missing Piece

Wedding

At work, we met without a clue
That we would find a love so true
You made me laugh when days were long
Your caring heart kept me so strong
Your brave embrace would pull me near
And make the unknown feel less feared

> Jacob, I found my missing piece in you
> You make me better through and through
> Today we promise heart and soul
> My Humanmango, you make me whole

When you were suspended from work
We held each other through the hurt
We lost our parents, they never met
A pain our hearts will not forget
We're expecting Beanny, come what may
And wait to see what life will say
You'll be a wonderful father too
I'll face each bump in life with you

> Jacob, I found my missing piece in you
> You make me better through and through
> Today we promise heart and soul
> My Humanmango, you make me whole

I wasn't there to be your first
My last days are yours on this earth
Today our wedding lights the way
To grow old by your side each day

> Jacob, I found my missing piece in you
> You make me better through and through
> Today we promise heart and soul
> My Humanmango, you make me whole

Your hand in mine, the road is bright
We walk ahead into the light
