A SONG WRITTEN FOR RAY

Heart to Life Again

Just because

At the restaurant, I found my chair
You came for food and waited there
You asked if you could sit by me
Then asked for my number sweetly
You told me you were not married then
And that was how it all began

> Ray, you bring my heart to life again
> You make me whole where I have been
> I'm grateful for the love I see
> Thank you, thank you for loving me

Now I'm your sweetheart Alicia, true
Your kindness shows in all you do
Your funny side can make me smile
Your sweetness stays with me awhile
Protective arms around my heart
Your patient love has played its part
I feel whole again with you
You make me feel alive anew

> Ray, you bring my heart to life again
> You make me whole where I have been
> I'm grateful for the love I see
> Thank you, thank you for loving me

One day, I hope I'll be your wife
To share the rest of this sweet life
Until then, I'll hold you near
And thank the day you sat right here

> Ray, you bring my heart to life again
> You make me whole where I have been
> I'm grateful for the love I see
> Thank you, thank you for loving me

That restaurant still shines in my mind
Where love arrived, gentle and kind
