

A SONG WRITTEN FOR HANNAH

Forever My Baby Girl

Birthday

1:09

3:24

The day you were born, my world changed
You were my whole world, bright and new
My love for you has always remained
From that first moment, my love grew
My baby girl, through every change
I've kept this love alive for you

*Hannah, on your birthday, hear me say
Daddy loves you so much, come what may
Though you are far, you're still my world
You'll always be my baby girl*

Your patient ways bring gentle grace
Your funny side can make me smile
Your wisdom shines in every place
Though you are far, I miss you still
Some days, I miss you by my side
But close inside my heart you stay
No distance takes away my pride
My love will find you anyway

*Hannah, on your birthday, hear me say
Daddy loves you so much, come what may
Though you are far, you're still my world
You'll always be my baby girl*

Whatever days may come our way
I'll love you more with every year
Though you are far, my heart will stay
Beside you, always close and near

*Hannah, on your birthday, hear me say
Daddy loves you so much, come what may
Though you are far, you're still my world
You'll always be my baby girl*

*Far away, you're still my world
Always, my baby girl*
