

A SONG WRITTEN FOR SKYLAR

From Broken Days

Birthday

1:28

4:19

We sang together, side by side
Your sarcasm made my laughter rise
I read the stories out to you
And every song felt fresh and new
Your kindness filled each page with grace
We found our joy there face to face

*Skylar, from broken days, you rose
I'm proud of all the strength you chose
You've grown into a woman dear
You're the love of my heart, always near*

That first vacation, just us two
Became a memory bright and true
When your dad left us, we broke inside
Yet held on close through every tide
We faced the hardest days we knew
Your words, "we're tough," kept ringing true
Those heavy times remade our way
And made us stronger day by day

*Skylar, from broken days, you rose
I'm proud of all the strength you chose
You've grown into a woman dear
You're the love of my heart, always near*

On your birthday, hear me say
I'll stand beside you on your way
May all the love you've given shine
And keep its gentle light in time
The lessons that we learned, side by side
Jeremiah 29:11 is our guide
The Story of Leather taught us too
Hope and a future wait for you

*Skylar, from broken days, you rose
I'm proud of all the strength you chose
You've grown into a woman dear
You're the love of my heart, always near*

*Our songs and pages hold us near
Your laughter stays so bright and clear*
