

A SONG WRITTEN FOR MICHELLE

Everlasting Love

Just because

1:16

3:45

At work, in summer of '07
I knew I'd found a bit of heaven
One look from you swept me off my feet
That first hello was warm and sweet
Since then, we've been right side by side
And love has been our faithful guide

*Michelle, I love you, strong and true
Your steady heart still lets me see
For standing by me, through and through
You stayed so true to me*

That night, in Tunica, you were there
With Bob Seger filling up the air
You smiled; I knew each word by heart
Those songs still play where memories start

I was a Boilermaker welder, always on the road
You came along and shared the load
From Springfield, Tennessee to South
Boston, Virginia
To Muscle Shoals, Alabama, you stayed beside me
In Leavenworth, Kansas, the night I lost Lil Joe
In 2009, my son, you wouldn't let me go

*Michelle, I love you, strong and true
Your steady heart still lets me see
For standing by me, through and through
You stayed so true to me*

In 2010, outside Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania
I fell so ill, and you were rushing me home
Back in Tennessee, they found it was MRSA
Six months I was down, and you never left my side

Through meteor showers, we watched the sky
I hold those nights so close to me
I'll thank you as the years go by
And I will forever have your back, you'll see

*Michelle, I love you, strong and true
Your steady heart still lets me see
For standing by me, through and through
You stayed so true to me*

*Those falling lights still fill my heart
I'll have your back, we'll never part*
