

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JULIE

Shining Light

Birthday

1:06

3:14

At Piccadilly Circus, buses sighed
In nineteen eighty-eight, we met
One waiting place, then worlds opened wide
Ten years of travel, no regret
Each road we took lit up the night
We found our way in borrowed light

*Julie, you're the shining light we know
You're the wise heart everyone turns to
By my side, you make our whole world glow
My perfect companion, tried and true*

When Zachary and Tobias came
We learned the rhythm of their days
You gave our home a warmer flame
With steady love in countless ways
Through losses, friends and loved ones gone
We held the living closer still
Your loyal heart kept leading on
With clear good sense and iron will

*Julie, you're the shining light we know
You're the wise heart everyone turns to
By my side, you make our whole world glow
My perfect companion, tried and true*

Tonight we toast your sixtieth year
Still dancing like you're half that age
The road ahead is bright and clear
With you beside me, page by page

*Julie, you're the shining light we know
You're the wise heart everyone turns to
By my side, you make our whole world glow
My perfect companion, tried and true*

*That bus stop still becomes our start
And you still shine inside my heart*
