

A SONG WRITTEN FOR LINDA

Home Within My Song

Just because

1:25

4:09

When you finally went out with me
I felt a light begin to glow
On Caribbean cruises, wild and free
We watched the quiet waters flow
At Pictionary, laughter rose
And every smile became our prose

*Linda, nothing's better than snuggling near
After twenty years, I want you here
I'd still be chasing you each day
My best thing, come what may*

When that Ponzi scheme brought loss
We held on through those harder days
Your kindness helped me bear the cost
And warmed our home in quiet ways
When I go looking room to room
I find you, and my smile blooms
And all my heart is by your side

*Linda, nothing's better than snuggling near
After twenty years, I want you here
I'd still be chasing you each day
My best thing, come what may*

I'll keep on searching room to room
I find you, and my smile blooms
Whatever comes, I'll stand beside
With all my heart, with love and pride

*Linda, nothing's better than snuggling near
After twenty years, I want you here
I'd still be chasing you each day
My best thing, come what may*

*Like waves that carry us along
You are the home within my song*
