A SONG WRITTEN FOR PAT

Timeless Love

Birthday

1:21 3:59

We met as teenagers, hearts wide awake
Two young lives with so much at stake
Then we were married, hand in hand
Growing together, just as planned
For thirty-one years, you've stayed near
Your eyes find only me, year by year

> Pat, you're my love, my life, my light
> You put me first and hold me tight
> On your birthday, I still want to say
> I'd change nothing, come what may

The loss of my parents brought rain
You held me close against the strain
Your sister's loss brought darker days
I held you close through muted grays
Your steady support lights my way
You put me first, day after day
Your love expects no price from me
You stand and keep me safe and free

> Pat, you're my love, my life, my light
> You put me first and hold me tight
> On your birthday, I still want to say
> I'd change nothing, come what may

May every birthday find us near
With all the love we've built right here
I'll choose your hand, year after year
And keep our every moment dear

> Pat, you're my love, my life, my light
> You put me first and hold me tight
> On your birthday, I still want to say
> I'd change nothing, come what may

Two teenage hearts, still hand in hand
One lasting love, just as we planned
