A SONG WRITTEN FOR NIKKI LOU

Restless Heart at Home

Anniversary

You knew me before I ever knew you
I was that bass player, full of pride
One random talk began and still continues
You called me stuck-up, cold inside
That conversation never reached an end
It turned a stranger into my best friend

> Nikki Lou, you're always here
> You keep my restless heart at home
> Your steady love still draws me near
> Forever, my person, my own

Two years later, we said our vows
I took your son in as my own
Our happy family found its way somehow
Your tender heart became our home
When I lost my dad, you held me near Your patience softened every fear
You keep my scattered thoughts from spinning round
You pull my restless spirit down

> Nikki Lou, you're always here
> You keep my restless heart at home
> Your steady love still draws me near
> Forever, my person, my own

I'll guard the heart you placed in mine
And choose you through each changing day
You saved this restless soul in time
Forever, I will find a way

> Nikki Lou, you're always here
> You keep my restless heart at home
> Your steady love still draws me near
> Forever, my person, my own

You helped me lay my demons down to rest
With you I'm home, I'm finally blessed
