

A SONG WRITTEN FOR BRENDA

Endless Love Journey

Just because

1:07

3:17

A young cowboy riding down Main Street
Turned at the corner store, and there you stood
The most beautiful girl I'd ever seen
I had to pull in, I had to say hello
Evenings on your folks' front porch
I thought I knew what love was, I was way off

I chased the rodeo, rode the bronses
Broke my nose, my neck, my back
But I could never get you out of my mind
Drove two hours with flowers in my hand
Hurt me to the bone, I won't pretend
But we talked a long time, and slowly I forgave

*Brenda, you saved my life somehow
When things go wrong, I'm with you now
I wish you could see what I see
I'll always love you endlessly*

We got married, raised our girls
Hard times came, I lost my way
Your folks and mine gave me a choice
Get help or leave, and I chose to stay
Twenty-five years clean, I owe it all to you
One hell of a woman, strong and true

Almost fifty years side by side
Through the oilfield bust and the nights I cried
My love has never waned, it's true
I keep on trying, all for you

*Brenda, you saved my life somehow
When things go wrong, I'm with you now
I wish you could see what I see
I'll always love you endlessly*

*That corner stays within my view
I wish you could see what I see of you
I'm your fool, forever*
