A SONG WRITTEN FOR STACEY

Secret Rendezvous

Birthday

At West Street Live, we slipped away at night
Our secret rendezvous just felt so right
We hid our love before the world could see
Before they ever knew of you and me
You get my humour, know me inside out
And know the way to wind me up, no doubt

> Stacey, you mean the world to me
> With you, I'm myself, completely free
> My partner, my lover, my best friend for life
> My one true love, my wife

At the Empire State Building, I asked you
And all the city opened up in view
In Florida, you were stunning that day
I forgot my vows; you laughed it all away
You took my son in as your own
Our daughter's birth brought joy into our home
When Loki left, we faced that quiet pain
We held each other through the rain

> Stacey, you mean the world to me
> With you, I'm myself, completely free
> My partner, my lover, my best friend for life
> My one true love, my wife

On your birthday, I just want you to know How your love helps this whole family grow
You put us first in all that you do
I'll keep choosing this life with you

> Stacey, you mean the world to me
> With you, I'm myself, completely free
> My partner, my lover, my best friend for life
> My one true love, my wife

Disney World, our happy place to be
And your laughter is still home to me
