

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JAREEN

Waiting Through the Storm

Just because

1:14

3:38

That yellow flower field shone like gold
We let the afternoon unfold
Our special dinners warmed the night
And made the waiting feel less tight

*Jareen, I will wait through every storm
Your love still keeps my whole heart warm
However hard these days may be
I pray, Lord, let our hearts be free*

When rain and wind would fill the air
We held each other close and warm
Those quiet cuddles eased despair
Against the world's unyielding storm
You gave me love through changing days
When all I had slipped far away
Though life has pulled our paths apart
Your faithful love still lights my heart

*Jareen, I will wait through every storm
Your love still keeps my whole heart warm
However hard these days may be
I pray, Lord, let our hearts be free*

No special day has called me near
I sing because I hold you dear
I'll trust the Lord to bless our way
And keep on waiting every day

*Jareen, I will wait through every storm
Your love still keeps my whole heart warm
However hard these days may be
I pray, Lord, let our hearts be free*

When rain and wind begin to rise
I see the flowers in your eyes

Scan to listen to your song

YOURMELODY

ORIGINAL EDITION • NO. 22483