A SONG WRITTEN FOR ARCHANA

Heartbeat in the Park

Birthday

1:16 3:43

At my local pub, you caught my eye
The whole room faded as you passed by
One look, I knew you were the one
My heart was warmed just like the sun
Our first walks, hand in hand, felt right
The park seemed brighter in that light

> Archana, your smile makes me complete
> You bring a rhythm to my beat
> On this birthday, know my love is true
> I'll stay right here with you

From Nepal, your road has reached this place
I see such courage in your face
Some parts of your past need time
Before our lives can fall in line
Each waiting day makes clear to me
How deep this love will always be
Those park-side walks, your hand in mine
Made every quiet moment shine

> Archana, your smile makes me complete
> You bring a rhythm to my beat
> On this birthday, know my love is true
> I'll stay right here with you

I'll hold the hope we share tonight
And keep it burning warm and bright
For every step still left to do
My heart will wait and walk with you

> Archana, your smile makes me complete
> You bring a rhythm to my beat
> On this birthday, know my love is true
> I'll stay right here with you

Your hand in mine beneath the sky
Your smile is where my whole heart lies
