

A SONG WRITTEN FOR ERIK

More Than a Son-in-Law

Birthday

1:29

4:23

Every mother dreams of a man like you,
Someone whose heart is honest and true.
You came when Tamera needed someone to stay,
And loved her through her hardest days.
You gave her kindness, respect, and care,
A love she could trust, a hand always there.
Watching you love her the way that you do,
Makes me so thankful she found you.

*Erik, you're the son my heart has found,
The kind of man we're so proud to have around.
You're more than family, you're a part of me,
And I'm so proud of the man you've come to be.*

You welcomed Makenna with open arms,
And made her feel safe with your loving heart.
Then Jaden came along, our sweet little boy,
Bringing our family another kind of joy.
We call him J8, and we smile every time,
Seeing that little boy with his daddy by his side.
You're the father every child deserves to know,
Giving them love in everything you show.

*Erik, you're the son my heart has found,
The kind of man we're so proud to have around.
You're more than family, you're a part of me,
And I'm so proud of the man you've come to be.*

You've been a true friend through the years,
The one who shows up through the tears.
When I needed someone to help me through,
I found that I could count on you.
You fit our family like you've always belonged,
With a heart so giving and a love so strong.
We love and respect you more than you know,
And I hope that love will always show.

*Erik, you're the son my heart has found,
The kind of man we're so proud to have around.
You're more than family, you're a part of me,
And I'm so proud of the man you've come to be.*

Today we celebrate the life you share,
And all the love you bring with your care.
I didn't give you life, but one thing is true,
I'm blessed to have a son like you.

*Erik, you're the son my heart has found,
A man whose love makes us all so proud.
Happy birthday, may all your dreams come true,
You're not just my son-in-law, you're my son too.*

*From your mother-in-law, with all my love today,
I'm thankful you're my son in every way.*
