

A SONG WRITTEN FOR YADIRA

Home on Red Shiner Way

Just because

1:11

3:29

When rain came through our one-bedroom place
We'd watch the water cover the floor
With Mom, we made that small room our space
Still, we kept on hoping for more
We would click, thinking the very same
And somehow, we moved in together

*Yadira, I may not say it right
I'm not perfect, but my love burns bright
You make my whole world feel alive
Baby, you and Jr are my life*

Money was tight in those early days
Low paying jobs, night shifts, seven days a week
Living in Houston, in not the best of places
But you stayed patient, you never left my side
Now I'm a law man, and I can provide
A better life for you and Jr
Then we moved to a nicer place
Ten years later, we found our home on Red
Shiner Way

*Yadira, I may not say it right
I'm not perfect, but my love burns bright
You make my whole world feel alive
Baby, you and Jr are my life*

December sixth, two thousand fourteen, at three fourteen in the morning
You made me the happiest man, giving joy to my life
Giving birth to our son Jr
I'll learn to say what fills my heart
To thank you for your patient care

*Yadira, I may not say it right
I'm not perfect, but my love burns bright
You make my whole world feel alive
Baby, you and Jr are my life*

*My life had no meaning before meeting you I'm a better person, thanks to the good Lord, you and our boy
I thank God, my life now centers around you
I love you forever, my darling, always thinking of you, my love*

Scan to listen to your song

YOURMELODY

ORIGINAL EDITION • NO. 22708