

A SONG WRITTEN FOR SANDRA

The Man I Want to Be

Just because

1:06

3:15

I still remember that day in church,
When I saw your smile for the very first time.
You wore that beautiful purple saree,
And somehow, your heart spoke straight to mine.

I didn't know where life would lead,
Or how much love could change a man.
But something special started that day,
A love much greater than I had planned.

*Sandra, you make me want to be a better man,
You love me for who I am, not who I've been.
Through every storm, you're there to hold my hand,
You're the greatest love I've ever known within.*

You've seen the parts of me I couldn't hide,
The mistakes and roads I walked before.
You never judged the life I used to live,
You just showed me what real love is for.

I know that change has never come easy,
And some days I still lose my way.
But you're so patient, caring, and loving,
You stand beside us every single day.

*Sandra, you make me want to be a better man,
You love me for who I am, not who I've been.
Through every storm, you're there to hold my hand,
You're the greatest love I've ever known within.*

I can't wait to stand beside you and say, 'I do,'
To build a life and share my dreams with you.
Through all the years, whatever comes our way,
I'll choose you with my whole heart every day.

*Sandra, you make me want to be a better man,
You love me for who I am, not who I've been.
I can't wait to spend forever holding your hand,
And give you all the love that I can.*

*From that first smile to the dreams we're building now,
I'll love you for a lifetime, that's my vow.*
