A SONG WRITTEN FOR LARRY

Every Chapter, Every Christmas

Christmas

Christmas lights are shining once again
And here we are, still lovers and best friends
Of all the things that life has brought my way
You're still the one I'd choose every day

I love our mornings out upon the green
The little laughs, the moments in between
You're no Tiger Woods, but that's okay
I'd choose your swing and smile any day

> Larry, you're the love of my life
> My best friend, my forever, my home
> Through every change, through every season
> You'll never have to face life alone

From golfing days to watching every game
There's no one else with whom I'd feel the same
It's never been about the perfect score
It's being by your side that I adore

And if some things are harder than before
They'll never make me love you any less
Your heart is all I've ever needed most
And I'll be here through every test

> Larry, you're the love of my life
> My best friend, my forever, my home
> Through every change, through every season
> You'll never have to face life alone

So take my hand as we begin this chapter
Don't let go, I'll hold on just as tight
Whatever challenges tomorrow brings us
I'll stand beside you, day and night

> Larry, you're the love of my life
> My best friend, my forever, my home
> This Christmas and for all our tomorrows
> You'll never have to face life alone

If I could choose my life a thousand times
I'd choose you every time, my love
