

A SONG WRITTEN FOR ELLA-LOUISE

Endless Embrace

Just because

1:04

3:07

Snow fell, you came outside with us to play
While Daddy took the pictures that day
Inside, hot chocolate warmed my hands
Your love made home a softer land
Each day, you combed my hair with care
“You are beautiful,” filled the air

*Ella-Louise, you never let me fall
When I was young, you answered every call
With Fred, you helped me through school and college then
I'd choose you all over again*

After divorce, I left Texas alone
Back home, your arms became my cornerstone
I moved to Louisiana, starting new You stayed beside me, helped me make it through
On Fridays, Saturdays, movies on screen
Beside you, life felt gentle as a dream
At ninety, you still cook most every day
For all the ones you love in your own way

*Ella-Louise, you never let me fall
When I was young, you answered every call
With Fred, you helped me through school and
college then
I'd choose you all over again*

God could not have given me a better mother
With you, I never need to search another
I'll hold your love when days are hard to face
And carry home within your warm embrace

*Ella-Louise, you never let me fall
When I was young, you answered every call
With Fred, you helped me through school and
college then
I'd choose you all over again*

*A warm cup waits when winter fills the air
I hear “you’re beautiful” everywhere*
