

A SONG WRITTEN FOR KATHY

Beacon of Love

Anniversary

1:38

4:48

At thirteen, in our same homeroom
You smiled, and the whole day felt new
By senior year, our love would bloom
And every dream led back to you
From then till now, my truest friend
Your giving heart knows no true end

*Kathy, you're the beacon for my soul
My life's incomplete without your glow
You treat me like a king, you make me whole
Forever united, this I know*

Through surgeries, we held through the night
Your arms kept every shadow out of sight
Your needs come last; you give your time
You never spoil yourself, yet still you shine
When cuddles call, I give you 'Belly Time'
And every worry softens into rhyme
Forty years of marriage, hand in hand
On this anniversary, here we stand

*Kathy, you're the beacon for my soul
My life's incomplete without your glow
You treat me like a king, you make me whole
Forever united, this I know*

On Valentine's, we take our trips away
A week at the Lake House, where we stay
Just you and I, with nothing else to do
The quiet hours keep leading back to you
I cherish every hour spent with you
My best friend, there's no one else like you
Forty years, I still reach for your hand
Forever by your side, I'll always stand

Whatever comes, I'll hold you near
My steady love will calm each fear
May this anniversary renew
Our forever, faithful, strong, and true

*Kathy, you're the beacon for my soul
My life's incomplete without your glow
You treat me like a king, you make me whole
Forever united, this I know*

*That homeroom still lives in my heart
Forever united, never apart*
