A SONG WRITTEN FOR SHANNON

Open Heart Journey

Anniversary

That first call, I wished it would not end
A stranger's voice that felt like my closest friend
At Atlanta airport, there was you
Like a dream was finally coming true
Outside, I held your hand so tight
Waiting for a taxi, you and I

> Shannon, you showed me what love should be
> Your open heart gave all to me
> Your love so pure, always true
> In every breath, I still chose you

Down the aisle, my heart raced anew
Our first meeting came back into view
That first moment, everything felt right
Each step I take is with you in sight
On every road trip, every flight
Life's brighter with you by my side
Our hopes and fears have left their trace
We learn to grow with love and grace

> Shannon, you showed me what love should be
> Your open heart gave all to me
> Your love so pure, always true
> In every breath, I still chose you

On this anniversary, I see
How far your love has carried me
Whatever waits, we'll grow as one
Hand in hand, we'll meet the sun

> Shannon, you showed me what love should be
> Your open heart gave all to me
> Your love so pure, always true
> In every breath, I still chose you

Your hand in mine, I hold on tight
That taxi wait still feels so right
