

A SONG WRITTEN FOR DON

Grateful for You

Tribute

1:14

3:38

Freshmen in college, hearts were torn
A brother and sister left us to mourn
We found comfort in what we could say
Soon we were dating, day after day
An accident nearly took you away
God healed you, and I learned to pray

*Don, how fortunate we were to find each other
A love that stays so gentle and true
Through all these years, you're my hero, kind
My hero, I'm grateful for you*

Drafted in the Army, you had to leave
During Vietnam, I learned to grieve
In Korea, fourteen months went by
Then you came home, and joy ran high
You worked a secular job each day
And still made time to guide the way
You pastored churches forty years
God first, you carried cares and tears

*Don, how fortunate we were to find each other
A love that stays so gentle and true
Through all these years, you're my hero, kind
My hero, I'm grateful for you*

I'll hold your faithful hand in mine
This tribute says your love still shines
Each day, I thank God for our way
My pride in you will always stay

*Don, how fortunate we were to find each other
A love that stays so gentle and true
Through all these years, you're my hero, kind
My hero, I'm grateful for you*

*Our happy homecoming lights my heart
We found our way, never apart*
