A SONG WRITTEN FOR SHARON

Guiding Light

Birthday

We met riding a motorcycle
Your playful smile stayed all the while
Best friends, you made the whole road shine
Your loving heart still steadies mine
Vacation at the sea ranch was ours
With salt-bright days and quiet hours

> Sharon, you are my guiding light
> You are my everything tonight
> You are my inspiration, true
> I promise I'll always love you

When children's health brought anxious nights
You held us close and kept hope bright
When financial matters dimmed our view
Your loyal love still pulled me through
Your wisdom found a gentler way
Your strength gave courage room to stay
You turned our hard days into hope
Your love gave me the strength to cope

> Sharon, you are my guiding light
> You are my everything tonight
> You are my inspiration, true
> I promise I'll always love you

My caring wife, you hold me near
Your playful smile makes each day clear
On that motorcycle, I met you
Your loyal heart has stayed so true
Your wisdom still shows me the way
Your strength gives courage room to stay
Through all our trials, we found hope
Your love still helps me learn to cope

On your birthday, I celebrate
The beautiful strength you bring each day
May joy and peace become your fate
And light keep shining on your way

> Sharon, you are my guiding light
> You are my everything tonight
> You are my inspiration, true
> I promise I'll always love you

Like waves that shimmer on the sea
Your love keeps shining over me
