

A SONG WRITTEN FOR LEANNE

Eternal Shores

Birthday

1:33

4:33

Along the shore, your laughter filled the air
Your hand in mine, the tide rolled to the sea
Each simple wave became a whispered prayer
I knew your heart would always shelter me
Your love is strong, a rock beneath my feet
Your caring makes our whole world feel complete

*Leanne, my love, oh please hear my heart
Each year, I choose you from the very start
Through every road, my love stays close to you
Forever, my love stays true*

Our children came and filled our days with light
Our world grew bright beneath their smiling eyes
We held them close through every waking night
Love made a home across the passing skies
On our wedding day, we made our vow
To walk as one, whatever life may send
We lost our mothers; still I feel them now
Their love remains, a light that will not end

*Leanne, my love, oh please hear my heart
Each year, I choose you from the very start
Through every road, my love stays close to you
Forever, my love stays true*

One day, this road will reach its final bend
Our love will rise beyond the blue
Our hearts will meet again beyond the end
Forever, I will walk with you

*Leanne, my love, oh please hear my heart
Each year, I choose you from the very start
Through every road, my love stays close to you
Forever, my love stays true*

And by the sea, your laughter lights my way Forever, love will lead us home to stay
