

A SONG WRITTEN FOR LOMANI

Fiji's Lost Harmony

Gift to self

1:44

5:07

Children used to run loose and free
All races live in harmony
Neighbors borrowed sugar for tea
Fiji, the way the world should be
We sang together, warm and bright
And held that paradise in sight

*My paradise, we used to live in harmony
We sang Fiji, the way the world should be
Fiji, my beloved Fiji
My heart breaks for thee*

Those days are gone, I sing this song
Oh Lord, where have we gone so wrong?
He said, she said, the blame goes on
While politicians sing their own song
Yet it's not too late to find the key
Unlock the gate, let spirits free
Break chains of malice and of hate
Let every heart reciprocate

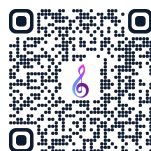

*My paradise, we used to live in harmony
We sang Fiji, the way the world should be
Fiji, my beloved Fiji
My heart breaks for thee*

From mountains through the valley, to the sea
May every race live strong and free
Oh Lord in heaven, hear this song
No more he said, she said, blame goes on
Let Fiji find the key to see
Unlock the gate, let spirits free
Break chains of malice and of hate
Let every heart reciprocate

May Fiji find its harmony
The way the world was meant to be
From the mountains to the sea
All together, strong and free

*My paradise, we used to live in harmony
We sang Fiji, the way the world should be
Fiji, my beloved Fiji
My heart breaks for thee*

*From mountains through the valley air
May harmony be everywhere*
