

A SONG WRITTEN FOR KAREN

First in My Heart

Just because

1:21

3:58

A taxi ride had filled my day
I drove your son to school with care
Then in a bar, you came my way
You tapped my shoulder, standing there
That little spark still lights the way
And left a warmth I always wear

*Karen, you put me first each day
I see the best of me in you
You chase my every shade away
My sexy ass babe, it's you*

You put me first before the rest
Your smile can fill a quiet room
When something calls, you give your best
You make the heavy shadows bloom
Before yourself, you choose us all
Without a fuss, you see it through
Your love's the answer to my call
That steady strength is always you

*Karen, you put me first each day
I see the best of me in you
You chase my every shade away
My sexy ass babe, it's you*

No special day has brought this song
I sing because you're in my heart
May every road we share stay long
You're where my best tomorrows start

*Karen, you put me first each day
I see the best of me in you
You chase my every shade away
My sexy ass babe, it's you*

*That shoulder tap still warms the air
I carry that small spark with care*
