A SONG WRITTEN FOR SELINA

Memory's Wings

Tribute

1:11 3:28

At the Pineapple, we met somehow
Neither of us recalls it now
Freddy Krueger lit up the night
Pasta on the cooker till daylight
Adam stood shaking, scared to go through You said, “Don’t worry, we’ll look after you”

> selina, I was blessed to have you near
> You showed my heart that it was free
> Though life moved on, you’re still right here
> You’re the best part of me

At fairs, we dressed up just for fun
Those bold old days were second to none
We jumped from windows, out of sight
When one bad party spoiled the night
You showed us how to stand our ground
You kept our hopeful dreams unbound
You made us feel like we belonged
You made us feel both brave and strong

> selina, I was blessed to have you near
> You showed my heart that it was free
> Though life moved on, you’re still right here
> You’re the best part of me

This is my tribute, soft and true
For all the strength I learned from you Don’t dwell on what the future brings I’ll carry you on memory’s wings

> selina, I was blessed to have you near
> You showed my heart that it was free
> Though life moved on, you’re still right here
> You’re the best part of me

I keep the laughter from those days
Your strength will guide me through my ways
