

A SONG WRITTEN FOR TRACEY

Endless Roads to You

Birthday

1:23

4:04

September sun on Lyme Regis stone
We stood together, never alone
Second time around, we made our vow
To hold your hand, then and now
You were my best friend from the start
You lit the music in my heart

*Tracey, you promised me adventure, and it's true
Every road has led me back to you
I will love you to the end of this life and in the next
And I'd choose you again, always, with all I have left*

An unbroken circle, our rings catch the light
Showing us the way ahead, warm and bright
We planted dreams and watched them grow
Roots run deep where kind hearts go
With all you care for, near and far You've shown me who we really are

*Tracey, you promised me adventure, and it's true
Every road has led me back to you
I will love you to the end of this life and in
the next
And I'd choose you again, always, with all I

Some days were hard, but we held on Laughing through until the dawn
I'll make the tea, I'll hold your hand
Friends for life, just as we planned

So let's dance until we can dance no more
There are seasons and horizons still in store
Talk together, keep each other warm
Love is our shelter in every storm

*Tracey, you promised me adventure, and it's true
Every road has led me back to you
I will love you to the end of this life and in
the next
And I'd choose you again, always, with all I

Our story's not over, it's only begun
My best friend, my love, my only one
