

A SONG WRITTEN FOR DENISE

The Best Thing I Ever Won

Just because

1:05

3:10

Sixteen years ago at Canyon Lake,
A boat parade changed everything for me.
At Arlene and Phil's, I saw your smile,
And found a love that made my life complete.
Five feet tall, with a gentle voice,
A heart so kind, you always see the good.
I'm not the easiest man to love,
But you stand beside me like nobody could.

*Denise, you're the best thing I ever won,
Like hitting the jackpot, you're my number one.
You keep me grounded when I'm hard to love,
And every day, I thank the Lord above.*

Kristi, Amber, Kyle, and Ethan are mine,
Brooke and Cody came into my life with you.
Six special kids, one family we've made,
And eight grandkids bring us joy each day.
Kyle and Amanda will marry in February,
Two more boys will join our family tree.
Cody and Chayse will wed in April,
With dreams of children of their own someday.

*Denise, you're the best thing I ever won,
Like hitting the jackpot, you're my number one.
You keep me grounded when I'm hard to love,
And every day, I thank the Lord above.*

We lost both our mothers six months apart,
And carried all that sorrow in our hearts.
Some days the pain was more than we could bear,
But through it all, we knew the other cared.
You're soft-spoken, patient, and so strong,
You help me find my way when I go wrong.
My fourth wife, but the love I waited for,
With you, I've found what I was searching for.

I'd choose you again through every high and low,
Through all the changes still waiting down the road.
I'm grateful for the way you care for me,
And for the growing family we get to see.

*Denise, you're the best thing I ever won,
Like hitting the jackpot, you're my number one.
You keep me grounded when I'm hard to love,
And I'll spend my life showing you how much.*

*I love you more than words could ever show,
And I appreciate you more than you'll ever know.*
