

A SONG WRITTEN FOR JO

Endless Adventures Together

Birthday

1:07

3:18

In Bali, I swam out to find manta rays
You got the hump when I went out of view
I came back smiling, headed your way
That little storm was far too sweet and true
When you say you're cross, I cannot hide my smile
You turn my heart around in your own style

*Jo, you're my best friend in this world
Our life is bright, our dreams unfurled
You love me in ways I never knew
The pub is best with you*

On Portugal's beach, I asked you to marry me
You answered, and my heart flew wild and free
Our wedding day, the happiest of my life
It left my whole heart feeling so alive
We faced our exes, and my mum as well
You stayed close when the harder days would swell
When all seemed loud, you brought me back to calm
And kept my heart safe in your open palm

*Jo, you're my best friend in this world
Our life is bright, our dreams unfurled
You love me in ways I never knew
The pub is best with you*

I love your bum in leggings, it's so true
You know Tottenham now much more than I do

The way you plan and organise is great Always something ahead to celebrate

*Jo, you're my best friend in this world
Our life is bright, our dreams unfurled
You love me in ways I never knew
The pub is best with you*

*Your smile still turns the darkest sky to gold
My hand in yours, a story still untold*
